TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

Waterloo Place, Edinburgh, planned in 1815 (the year of the battle), by its construction not only beautified the city, but also served a very useful purpose, for it demolished the old and unsavoury suburb of Calton. It crosses the ravine known as the Low Calton by the Regent Bridge, a single arch, with a span of 50 feet, and about the same height.
